When I click on the link it always comes up with the popup message saying that the file is corrupted and to use another link. I tried copying and pasting the link into my browsers location but I still get this message. Neilys89 (View All) 7/15/2013 6:34 AM App will not work on my computer - I have two others, with no issue. It works on the third - which is probably a bit old, but I don't think it should be an issue. The description states it works on windows XP. I don't even have xp anymore - I just don't know if the problem is the computer or something else. Mr Fiasco (View All) 10/11/2012 3:00 PM Not working... This app has the most annoying sound that makes it impossible to use. If you try to open this app the sound of the app makes it impossible to use the computer. It is so irritating I can't use it!
