Discover Palau's reef, lagoons, mangroves and rugged natural terrain, home to 270 different species of wildlife. Or, take in the jaw-dropping beauty of the islands' verdant green valleys, rocky cliffs and scattered small islands. The islands are a protected natural sanctuary filled with ancient forests, thatched-roof villages and the rarest species of wildlife in the world. From a remote outpost on one of the islands, you'll be able to scan the horizon in search of other islands, to which you can sail by foot or by kayak. Coral Compass is a virtual reality documentary experience about Palau, a tropical island nation known as the last untouched wilderness on earth. Experience Palau's stunning natural beauty first-hand as you explore the islands aboard a sailboat or, with your own kayak, the waterways, mangroves, and beaches. Cinemaware, Inc. was founded in Boston, Massachusetts, USA to reinvent the interactive entertainment industry through innovative computer game design and development. We were the first computer game company to merge TV and the Internet, making our games the first online games. In 2012, Cinemaware's first game, "Scrolling Skies" was released and became the #1 selling free-to-play action/adventure game in the European and US Facebook App Stores. Cinemaware games have been awarded with over 50 Game of the Year awards in the USA and 13 Game of the Year awards in the UK. Arma 2: Complete Edition available for free on Steam on July 18th

Download Arma 2: Complete Edition from Steam for FREE! The complete Arma 2 collection (Arma 2 and Arma 2: Operation Arrowhead) will be available for free on Steam from July 18th through August 30th. And these 20 years later, Arma 2 still stands as one of the most tactical, yet accessible sim-racing games on PC. The base game was originally released in 2005, but the Complete Edition adds all the vehicles, weapons and clothing items available in the Arma 2 BattleMod development branch from 2009. In this mod, players can track all the open source vehicles and content from the Arma 2 BattleMod branch. While Arma 2: FV400 is an expansion for Arma 2, it is also an updated version of Arma 2: BattleMod with many new weapons, new vehicles, new environments, new vehicles and new vehicles. So players can play it as a standalone product. Players can download Arma 2: BattleMod for free from Steam from the same day. But the Complete Edition will be available free through Steam

Code: Source: Status: This mod is not on the workshop yet. Pics It is required to install the mod manually to a game folder. The mod is a mod for the PC version of the Just Cause 3. The PC version of the game allows you to split your game into files, so you could just split the mod file and it should work fine. Old Files Nanos-mods Pack 1 Build_v1.1 Pack 3 Changelog 1.13.2013 Update 4: Version 1.13 has been released. Includes many bug fixes and performance improvements. 1.12.2013 Added support for mod.cfg to make modding easier and play the game before modding. Added a new "EventScheduler" to utilize the new async functionality. Compatible with both old and new cloud servers, so you do not need to delete your cloud data after you installed it. 1.10.2013 Fixed one major bug where the mod was using a non-existent file as event.event_events.xml. This problem happened due to a new EventSystem's features. Fixed a few little bugs, especially when using the new EventSystem. 1.9.2013 The mod's event system is now using a different network call to the cloud's core event system. This should solve some lag problems that happened sometimes before. Fixed the AI code to not cause lag when just counting: It now only counts actions up to the count you set in the configuration. This means the game mode does not work as it always was when using a low count value. Igor could now handle the starting game at a power level higher than 0xFF without crashing, so that he is able to start the game whenever you like without having to set anything in the configuration. Added an option to the config to disable or enable the game mode. Now saves and loads the save data separately to the cloud. This means you do not have to delete your cloud data every time you use this mod.

1.8.2013 Now the mod is compatible with Just Cause 2. Now the mod is compatible with Just Cause 2. It is now possible to use a cloud server again, which was impossible before. New

What's new:

has released episode two of their retrospective series of Hellsinki's Facebook videos, where the band playing a gig in Helsinki in 2006, including soon-to-be-ex frontwoman Emmi, are recognized and remembered. In the episode, the group talk about what they were doing when they weren't singing and playing live (chiefly, recording), as well as how the band developed. "A lot of people start bands, and a lot of them end badly and go with the flow," says Tomas Lindh. "We started with two people, we had an idea of the sound, we had an idea of what we wanted to do. We did that, the faith in our work, and - with everything that's came afterward - their hunger for it." The band started working on its debut album, Quarantine Of The Non-Numb, in 2007 and released its eponymous EP in August 2008. Vocalist Emil Lähteenmäki left the band in the middle of 2009 and was replaced by Thomas Hänninen. In March 2009, the band played a gig at The Dancehall in Kaarina, Helsinki, where the first Forgotten Hill Tales episode was recorded. The first episode plays on demand here.
