Police said Thursday the vehicle was stolen from the parking lot of the Park Royal Inn and Suites in May. A witness told police the white truck was being driven by a female suspect, who she saw shoot at a house in the area of 160th Avenue and Diamond Drive, near Castle Downs in the city's northeast end, before it sped away. Investigators said after reviewing video from a nearby intersection, they believe the suspect dumped the stolen vehicle in the parking lot of a Park Royal Inn and Suites. They believe the suspect may have the same photo

Possible Duplicate: Plotting a continuous gradient in R I'm trying to plot a continuous gradient by representing it by lines on a scatterplot in R. I know how to plot lines in an image. However I have no clue how to do it by plotting a scatterplot. Here's what I have tried so far: points(df, pch=19, col="white") A: You can create a single line through the middle of each point. df Obama and Romney faced off for their first joint debate in Danville, Ky., on Thursday night. As is usually the case for debates, many voters were most interested in the first question, which dealt with national security. Both candidates agreed that the U.S. has a number of challenges in the world and need to address them. Obama, the incumbent, spoke first, saying he wished he could offer the world a "peace dividend" to address the problems. But, he said, such things don't come without sacrifice. He said his administration would make sure to maintain a military presence in Poland, but that no U.S. troops would stay in Europe after 2014. He said the U.S
